PUBLIC NOTICE

Apology from the Board of Selectmen, Town of Alna. Due to a clerical error, the following individuals were listed as having delinquent 2017 taxes: Stephen & Patti-Jo Averill, Gordon & Elizabeth Davis, Richard Verney, and Ellen Gordon. That was incorrect. They were, in fact, current. We apologize that their names were incorrectly printed in the town report.

PUBLIC NOTICE TOWN OF BOOTHBAY HARBOR PLANNING BOARD

The Boothbay Harbor Planning Board will hold a meeting on April 25, 2018, at 7:00 p.m., to review the Planning Board Advisory Workgroup's suggestions for ordinance amendments related to the Maritime/Water Dependent District. The Board will review proposed draft amendments that have been prepared by the Workgroup's planning consultant, Robert Faunce. The Board will be explaining the proposed amendments, and answer any questions that the public may have. The public is encouraged to attend. Copies of the Workgroup's proposed amendments are available through the Code Enforcement Office at the Town Hall, and are available for review on the Town's website, www.boothbayharbor.org, and on the Town's Facebook page. The Board also encourages seasonal residents of Boothbay Harbor who may not be able to attend to address comments or questions to Code Enforcement Officer Geoff Smith, who will forward them to the Board.

This is an informational meeting. No official action will be taken at this meeting.

Questions or comments can be submitted in advance of the meeting by giving them to the Code Enforcement Officer for the Board.
