| Patient beds and senior options for Lincoln County   |                 |                |                              |                              |
|--|-----------------|----------------|------------------------------|------------------------------|
| Facility   | Location        | Beds/rooms | OccupancyJune 1,2013 | 10 yearavg.occupancy |
| St. Andrews Village  | Boothbay Harbor |                |                              |                              |
| Gregory Wing   |                 | 30             | 29                           | 97%                          |
| Safe Havens  |                 | 11             |                              | 92%                          |
| Assisted Living  |                 | 13             |                              | 89%                          |
| Independent Living   |                 | 29             |                              | 82%                          |
|  |                 |                |                              |                              |
| Miles Memorial campus  | Damariscotta    |                |                              |                              |
| Cove's Edge Long-term  |                 | 54             | 73                           | 98%                          |
| Cove's Edge Skilled  |                 | 22             |                              | 93%                          |
| Riverside  |                 | 18             |                              | 98%                          |
| Assisted Living-Chase Pt.  |                 | 24             |                              | 94%                          |
| Total Lincoln County  |                 | 201            |                              |                              |
| Safe Havens and Riverside provide Alzheimer's care   |                 |                |                              |                              |
| Of the Gregory Wing's 30 beds, six are licensed for either long-term or short-term skilled care. |                 |                |                              |                              |
| Occupancy data from DHHS Occupancy and Distribution of Assessments Report 6/1/13                 |                 |                |                              |                              |
| All other data from Lincoln County Healthcare  |                 |                |                              |                              |